A. SAVINGS: Please report the total value of all savings and checking accounts. The figures provided below will be compared with what you reported on your 2021 tax return, line 2a of the 1040. *Important note: Do not include your family's primary place of residence in property values. You must only include any part of your home that you rent to someone else. For example, if half of the house is rented, use 50% of the current market value minus 50% of the mortgage owed to calculate the net worth. If the amount on line 17 in schedule 1 tax return is the result of a partnership, trust, or S corporation, please explain the arrangement on the back of this form and include the net worth in Section C below.

C. INVESTMENTS: If your tax return showed any dividend income or capital gain, you must report the total net worth of any of your current (unsold) investments. That figure is the total current net worth of your stocks, bonds, and mutual funds, etc. Also include the net worth of any partnerships and/or S corporations and all associated assets. (Do not include retirement accounts any-where in this form; business assets should be reported in section D).

PARENT(S): Current net worth of investments: $ _____ (Net worth = Total current market value less associated debt. If the net worth is negative, report a zero).
